

The Cost-of-Living Crisis (England)

September 2022

Headlines

---

- 93% answered they are concerned (extremely or fairly) about the impact of cost-of-living increases on their organisation.
- 93% are concerned (extremely or fairly) about the impact of CoL increases on their young people.
- Group leaders' most common concern for their young people as a result of the CoL crisis was disengagement from/reduced participation in sport and physical activity (51%). Young people and families being unable to afford activities/subscriptions was the next most common (42%).
- Other notable concerns for their young people highlighted by groups leaders included mental health (20%) and nutrition/household food insecurity (18%).
- The majority of respondents (39%) have seen a reduction in financial support from external funding streams because of CoL pressures (i.e. from local businesses, trusts and foundations, etc) – 23% haven't, with 25% unsure.
- 73% reported their group has made a change to tackle cost-of-living increases.
  - The most common change has been to provide free membership to young people (55%), followed by providing free meals or food for young people (47%). Reduced membership fees was also a common change (44%).
- The most common priority funding areas because of CoL pressures are delivery costs (70%), core costs (59%), and purchasing equipment to support sessions (51%).
- Half (48%) of respondents need £1,000 – £9,999 to support their CoL priorities over the next six months. 43% need £10,000 or more.
- Two-thirds of respondents (66%) indicated up to half their young people won't be able to attend activities over the next six months because of CoL pressures.